OVERVIEW:

Many family vacations and children's programs have been cancelled this summer due to concerns over COVID-19. In this round table, we discuss resources and activities available to keep children busy in the era of social distancing.

Topics covered include:

- Reviewing various types of child care solutions
- Locating online options or socially safe in-person activities
- Tips for assessing risks
- Discussing safety precautions with children and caregivers

TO VIEW:

To view this recording, please click on the session below and register.

English

BONUS RESOURCE:

Planning a Socially Safe Summer: A Child Care Resource Guide for Parents